

Develop a Smart Attendance Capturing Mobile App

The team members can be taken as employees and college/hackathon premises will be taken as office address for the purpose of development/demonstration.

Any suitable public dataset can be used for training the deep learning computer vision model for face recognition.